YORK, PA – The Sounds of Summer at Springettsbury Park Amphitheater will wrap up with The Mango Men on Sunday, August 1st, Melissa Martin & The Mighty Rhythm Kings on Wednesday, August 4th, and Santa Mamba on Sunday, August 8th.

The Mango Men will take you to the island of Margaritaville through Jimmy Buffet's unique blend of rock and roll. They will get you on your feet singing to the smooth, soulful Caribbean sounds that island dreams are made of.

Authentic, swinging, jump Blues. One of the liveliest, entertaining shows you will ever see. Melissa Martin's voice is big and bold and her band really grooves. You'll find yourself tapping your feet and snapping your fingers - One great live band.

Let the party begin! Santa Mamba's music rocks with Latin flavors, spiced with drum beats that make you want to move! One listen, one live experience and you too will be hooked! Their energy is amazing and the music is original and HOT. Rock, salsa, funk, jazz, Rumba, Meringue, disco, reggae, bolero, elements of all these sounds can be heard in the music of Santa Mamba. It's the perfect way to end our summer sounds!

In the case of severe weather conditions, concerts may be moved to the Central York Middle School Auditorium located at 1950 North Hills Road. Listen to ESPN 1440, WARM 103.3, News Radio 910 WSBA, and 96.1 WSOX, or contact the Parks & Recreation office at 505-0406 for concert updates.
