NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Springettsbury Township Police Department received the following information and wanted to make residents and community members aware of the preparations being taken for the upcoming census:

Census employees (called Listers) will be working in and around York County for the next 10 weeks collecting information about housing units and mailing address. They will have Census badges and be carrying brief cases with "U.S. Census Bureau" written on the side. This work will begin Monday, April 20, 2009. As of April 16, 2009, the Listers will be in the field practicing and gaining experience in the work.
