PRESS RELEASE

Springettsbury Township Tax Collector Resigns

York, PA – The Springettsbury Township Board of Supervisors has been notified that the Township tax collector, Ms. Margaret Cousler, will be resigning effective June 30, 2011.

The Board of Supervisors is currently reviewing all options in accordance with the Second Class Township Code. They have appointed the Township Manager as the tax collector as an interim measure in order to ensure continued service to the Township residents. All municipal taxes that are due to Springettsbury should be mailed or hand delivered to Springettsbury Township Tax Collector, 1501 Mount Zion Road, York, PA 17402. All residents having their taxes escrowed should notify their lender of any and all address changes.

Springettsbury is working with Central and York Suburban School Districts, as well as the County of York during this transition period in order to reduce any confusion with regard to the payment of taxes.
