Re: RIGHT-TO-KNOW REQUEST – Harris Corp, Cell Towers, Cell Tracking Methods

Dear Mr. Segelbaum,

Thank you for writing to Springettsbury Township with your request for information for:

- “Invoices, purchase orders, contracts, delivery receipts and nondisclosure agreement from the Harris Corporation, based in Melbourne, Fla.
- Documents outlining the department’s policies, about the use of devices (commonly marked as the “Stingray,” “Hailstorm” and “KingFish”), which work by acting as a fake cell tower, convincing phones to connect to them.
- Documents outlining the department’s policies about the use of a tactic commonly referred to as “tower dumps,” or other cellphone tracking methods.
- After-action reports from Jan. 1, 2010, to the date this request is processed, about the use of “tower dumps” – or similar tactics – as well as devices that act as a fake cell tower and convince phones to connect to them.”

The Township has reviewed its files and has no records on file related to your request.

Please be advised that this correspondence will serve to close this record with our office as permitted by law.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,
