PRESS RELEASE

Celebrate Independence Day at Springettsbury Park Amphitheater

YORK, PA – The Sounds of Summer at Springettsbury Park Amphitheater continues Sunday, July 1st with The Groove Train. Don't miss our Independence Day Celebration with a performance by Urban Guerilla Orchestra, followed by Springettsbury's famous fireworks on Wednesday, July 4th!

Once again, the Township welcomes The Groove Train. No matter the occasion, you can't resist the dance floor when Groove Train takes the stage. Groove Train will captivate you with an exciting blend of music from the days of disco, providing a show that consists of groovy costumes, outrageous hairstyles and showmanship.

Join us Independence Day for Urban Guerilla Orchestra, you will not find a band that exemplifies more versatility sophistication or energy. These world class performers deliver a high energy, cutting edge musical experience that will rock you every second of the performance. From disco to Motown to rock, Urban Guerilla Orchestra plays it all. You will find yourself dancing, clapping and singing through the night. The evening's celebration will continue with Springettsbury's famous fireworks!

In the case of severe weather conditions, concerts may be moved to the Central York Middle School Auditorium located at 1950 North Hills Road. Listen to WINK 103.3, 96.1 WSOX, or contact the Parks & Recreation office at 505-0406 for concert updates.

All concerts begin at 7:00 p.m. The series is free and tickets are not required, but Springettsbury Park Amphitheater seating is on a first come first served basis.
