Subject: Right to Know Request from ChainStar Security for Chuck E. Cheese #965 Calls for Service Report
Attachments: CEC0965.Records Request EMAIL.2012.03-06.pdf

Good Afternoon,

I have attached the standard form and a written request on my company's letter head to this email, the text of which is below:

"Secretary Holman,

This is a request for a "Calls for Service" dispatch report regarding a Chuck E. Cheese's location in your jurisdiction. The location in question is as follows:

- CEC0965: 2801 E. Market Street / York, PA 17402

Please cover the activity from January 1st, 2010 to the present.

Please send us the record of the dates and times officers were called and dispatched to the above location, as well as the general nature of the incident the police were responding to. We do not, however, need the actual detailed incident reports.

Our company, ChainStar Security, Inc., is a security management firm working with Chuck E. Cheese. Chuck E. Cheese is in the process of assessing the risk environment at this location to determine how to proceed with a comprehensive security program.

Please let us know if a monetary deposit is required to process the request. Please reach out to me, Valerie Zinner – vzinner@chainstarsecurity.com or (212) 481-8900 ext.809 – with any questions.

Thank you for your time and attention"
